Thousands of Cayuga County residents turn to United Way funded programs each year searching for and finding hope. Your gift supports neighbors throughout all of life's stages, connecting them to what they need most— child care services, mental health and addiction counseling, food and basic hygiene needs, transportation, and so much more.

More than 24,000 Cayuga County residents turned to a United Way funded program or service last year—60% seeking basic and safety net needs.

Prior to the coronavirus pandemic, 42% of Cayuga County residents were struggling to survive. As we continue to emerge from this health crisis, your support of the United Way is more critical than ever. Together with our partner agencies, 211 Lifeline, community and business partners, and YOU— we can rebuild a stronger network of services to ensure our neighbors have the resources they need to thrive.
